The following subjects are considered for Grade 1-5

- ## Counting

  Counting is an any collection of objects otherwise total number of objects in a set or a group. ONE TWO THREE FOUR FIVE SIX SEVEN.

- ## Addition

  Addition   is a sum of two or more objects or taking two or more numbers and adding them together. Addition and subtraction are firmly connected. In.

- ## Subtraction

  Subtraction is the demonstration or cycle of taking away. a numerical activity wherein the contrast between two numbers or amounts is determined. Example 1 Figure.

- ## Division

  The division is for disseminating a gathering of things into two halves. It is one of the four fundamental tasks of math capacities. The picture.

- ## Measurements

  Key word of Measurement Measurement is the evaluation interaction of non quantitative objects. Specially, Measurement is to utilize information to depict the noticed wonder as.

- ## Multiplication

  Key word of Multiplication In Arithmetic. To track down the result of duplicating. To raise (creatures). To proliferate (plants). increment or develop the number, amount,.